Here are the guided rides we tentatively have planned, all rides will leave by 10:00am and return before 3:00pm.
If you have a preference, please Circle the ride you are most interested in.

Washington DC Memorials;

This ride will go downtown and stop at 2-4 memorials for "photo ops" at many different memorials. Possible stops include the Vietnam Memorial, WWII, Lincoln Memorial, Washington Monument, and ride past the US Capitol. About 40 miles one way.

Arlington National Cemetery;

Approximately 45 miles one way, this ride will go past many of the places mentioned above but will only stop at the Cemetery? We will park and then take a Tram where it stops at; The Tomb of the Unknown soldiers(see the changing of the guard), Kennedy's Gravesite, The mast of the USS Maine, The final resting place of Audie Murphy, the most decorated U.S. soldier and movie star. (the tour-mobile tram lost the contract with the US Park Service, We hope that a replacement is in place by May, if not this will be a walking tour, about 2 miles of walking, in a fairly hilly environment)

Point Lookout State Park;

This will be about a 75+ mile roundtrip, leisurely ride through Southern Maryland rural atmosphere. We will take the back roads to the park to see where the Potomac enters the Chesapeake Bay as well as a Civil War Confederate POW camp and memorial. This ride may stop by a 50's style diner for a quick snack.

Annapolis, MD;

This will be a beautiful ride along the shore of the Chesapeake Bay on some incredible back roads. We will stop and visit the Maryland State Firefighters Memorial and quick refreshment at city dock or Hero's Pub (a local Fire/Police pub)

A short in county ride;

This will be a short putt around or county, going to Solomon's Island or North Beach

For those who may be a bit tired from the ride in are more than welcome to just hang out and swap stories in the hospitality room or by the indoor pool.
